Catalogue 56 – May 2010: Tasmania

---

1. ALEXANDER, Alison. Tasmania's Convicts. How Felons Built a Free Society. Allen & Unwin: Crows Nest, NSW, 2010. 318pp, black & white photographs and illustrations. Original cloth-textured papered boards with dustwrapper. Fine. ***From the dustwrapper: "Tasmania's convict ancestors, so long figures of shame to their descendants, are examined here in rich and unprecedented detail. In showing us what kinds of people the convicts really were, Alison Alexander dispels many myths. A landmark work" (Christopher Koch). #27575 $45.00

2. ANGUS, Max Simpkinson de Wesselow: landscape painter in Van Diemen's Land and the Port Phillip District, 1844–1848. Blubber Head Press: Hobart, 1984. #472 of 1000 numbered copies signed by the author. Square 4to. 191pp, 61 full-page colour plates (one a folding panorama) plus full illustrated catalogue of the artist's 217 known works (small b&w images). Original cloth with dustwrapper - and with the promotional wrap-around banner noting that the book won the Gold Medal in the Limited Editions category, and the Overall Trophy at the Second National Print Awards in 1984. Fine. #4385 $250.00

3. ATKINSON, Russell. Ellen Nora Payne. Woodcarver of Tasmania. Author: Launceston, 1975. 1st ed. 750 numbered copies, signed by the author. 4to. 110pp, b&w photographs, genealogical table on eps. Original cloth with dustwrapper (spine a bit faded). Very good. Short gift inscription on imprint page. #4388 $65.00

4. BACKHOUSE, Sue. Tasmanian Artists of the Twentieth Century. Painters, Sculptors, Printmakers and Photographers, 1900–1985. Pandani Press: Hobart, 1988. 4to. 244pp, illustrated in colour and b&w. One of a limited edition of 150 copies with an original signed etching by Hobart artist George Davis bound in before the title page. Signed by the author. Original morocco-grained vinyl cloth with dustwrapper and matching slip case. A few small slight bruises on the lamination on the dustwrapper spine, otherwise fine. #4392 $300.00

5. BATES, E. Katharine. Kaleidoscope: shifting scenes from East to West. Ward and Downey: London, 1889. xii, 275pp. Original green cloth decorated in gilt on cover and spine (corners bumped, wear to head and tail of spine, silverfish activity on front right and back left corners and edges). offsetting on endpapers, edges soiled. Good + ***Ferguson 6794. ***The author took a passage from London to Tasmania, via the Cape, and subsequently travelled to Melbourne and Sydney, New Zealand, Japan via China, Alaska, and across Canada on the Canadian Pacific Railway. Reflecting on the influenza she contracted in Alaska, which entailed a few weeks abed in Toronto, she remarks that one seems to have to pay for most experiences, and that while the English climate 'is probably the most liveable climate in the world... it is also one of the most depressing'. #27231 $110.00

6. BATESON, Charles The Convict Ships 1787–1868. Brown, Son & Ferguson: Glasgow, 1985. Reprint of 2nd (revised & best) ed. 421pp, frontis and 13 plates. Original cloth with dustwrapper. Fine (new copy). #4408 $60.00

7. Batman, John: Callaghan & Batman, Van Diemen's Land 1825. Edited by E.F. Sullivan's Cove: Adelaide, 1979. #10 of 500 copies. Fcap folio. 44pp, 2 illus, map. Original cloth with dustwrapper (showing Lycett's 'Ben Lomond'). Fine. ***Documents concerning John Batman and Eliza Callaghan, who he was to marry in 1828, but particularly the police search of his Ben Lomond property in 1825 for Eliza, who was then an absconding felon. #4484 $55.00

8. BAXTER, Annie. Memories of Tasmania and of the Macleay River and New England districts of New South Wales and of Port Fairy in the Western District of Port Phillip 1834–1848. Sullivan's Cove: Adelaide, 1980. #404 of 500 copies. Fcap folio. 88pp. Original cloth with dustwrapper. Fine. ***First published as Memories of the Past by a Lady in Australia in 1873, this is the only subsequent edition. #13158 $100.00

9. BEATTIE, J.W. Pictorial Portrayal of Tasmania's Past. From Beatties Studio: the oldest of its kind in Australia. Text by Basil Rait. Beatties Studio: Hobart, 1982. Oblong 4to. viii, 88pp (each a full-page sepia-toned photographic image). Cloth-textured papered boards with dustwrapper. Fine. #7185 $40.00

10. BISCHOFF, James. Sketch of the History of Van Diemen's Land, illustrated by a map of the island, and an account of the Van Diemen's Land Company. John Richardson: London, 1832. 1st edition. Ferguson 1517. xii, 182pp (last blank), [183]–260pp (appendix), large folding coloured map (by J. Arrowsmith), frontis and one other plate (both also by Arrowsmith – the VDL Co's establishments at Circular Head & Emu Bay). Original quarter cloth and papered boards with printed spine label; the lower half of front joint slightly cracked, short section at foot of rear joint starting, head and tail of spine and corners rubbed. The plates have a water stain at the lower inner corner, pages clean. The map has a slight crease, a little browning along the folds, a small piece torn from the outer margin (well clear of the map) and a short clean tear at the inner margin neatly closed. Good to very good. ***Includes the VDL Co's report for 1832, accounts of the Company's exploratory efforts in the interior and, as an appendix, Gov. Arthur's despatches on the Aborigines and their growing resistance to the European settlement. #20394 $875.00

11. BJELKE-PETERSEN, Marie. Before an Eastern Court. George Robertson & Co.: Melbourne, [1914]. 48pp. Red wrappers, black-lettered and yellow decorations, stapled with punched holes for a purple ribbon-tie (of which only the faintest trace remains). The text in red and black, printed on thick paper, uncut and partly unopened.

A few spots on the edges. Very good. ****The second of Miss Petersen's three religious stories, published prior to her nine novels.* #17608 $35.00

12. BJELKE-PETERSEN, Marie. Monsoon Music. Hutchinson: London, [1930]. 1st ed. 288pp, 8pp publisher's list. Original blue cloth, lettered in black, with dustwrapper (spine faded and stained, small chips from extremities). Offsetting and a little spotting on eps, some light spotting early and late, edges spotted, otherwise very good. ****The author's sixth novel, set on the Victorian and southern NSW coast. The themes of music and death dominate a plot which revolves around the friendship between a recently-bereaved Polish violinist and a woman pursued by an unusually evil husband who had her locked up in a lunatic asylum in order to get at her money. The book is dedicated to Sylvia [Mills] 'who for many years was my life's music' (and who had died in 1927).* #23814 $50.00

13. Black Line: Van Diemen's Land – Copies of all Correspondence ... on the subject of the Military Operations lately carried on against the Aboriginal Inhabitants of Van Diemen's Land. THRA: Hobart, 1971. Facsimile of House of Commons Paper 259 of 1831. With an historical introduction by A.G.L. Shaw. #415 of 500 numbered copies. Fcap folio. 86pp, large folding coloured map at rear. Original cloth with dustwrapper (unusually without tears, bright and clean, in protective sleeve). Slight crease top corner fep. Very good+. #5571 $135.00

14. BONWICK, James. The Last of the Tasmanians; or, The Black War of Van Diemen's Land. Sampson, Low, Son & Marston: London, 1870. Ferguson 7232. viii, 400pp, 2pp adverts; coloured frontis and 2 other colour plates, 15 woodcuts, folding map of Tasmania. With an additional illustration – a photographic print (dated 1902) of Bonwick tipped to the verso of the title-page (some offsetting showing through on the title-page). Original green cloth, spine vignette and aboriginal figure on upper board, both in gilt. Edges slightly darkened. A very nice clean copy. Very good+. #16693 $1100.00

With a Foreword by John Monash. 1st ed. 248pp, frontis portrait, 12 folding maps at rear (numbered 1–10, 10a, 11). Original red cloth, the decoration (soldier and unit badge) and title stamped on the upper board have lost almost all of the white colouring (as often). Issued without dustwrapper. The extremities of the cloth a little rubbed. Edges a bit spotted and yellowed, a little foxing on a few pages (mostly in the fore-margin). The maps all present and in very good condition. The front free endpaper has been removed, otherwise a good to very good copy. #27620 $500.00
57. GREENER, Leslie & Norman Laird. Ross Bridge and the Sculpture of Daniel Herbert. Fuller's Bookshop: Hobart, 1971. Large square 4to. 192pp, 47 b&w plates, line illus. Original cloth-textured papered boards with dustwrapper. Very good to fine (somewhat rubbed, now in protective sleeve). Slight soiling of title-page, otherwise very good. #4664 $120.00
- [57a] Same: somewhat rubbed dustwrapper (now in protective sleeves), and with slight soiling/rubbing of the extremities, but a good clean copy. #20345 $75.00
58. GREGORY, Benjamin. The Thorough Business Man: Memoirs of Walter Powell, Merchant, Melbourne and London. Wesleyan Conference Office: London, 1879. Small octavo. Sixth edition. viii, 382pp, tissue-protected frontispiece. Original green cloth with black decoration and blind, lettering on cover and spine in gilt (head, tail and edges of spine, and corners a little rubbed). Edges dark and a few spots on some pages, mostly on first and last few leaves. Signed on frontispiece by Walter Powell. Very good. ***English-born Powell (1822–68) grew up in Tasmania and later worked for a Launceston merchant and auctioneer before moving to Melbourne in the mid 1840s where he became a successful businessman. The first chapter of his memoir deals with 'Boyhood in Tasmania', and the balance is dominated by colonial business and religious (Wesleyan) affairs. #27668 $300.00
59. GUILER, Eric R. Gone and Almost Forgotten: Jetties in Southern Tasmania. Author: Hobart, 1998. 467pp, illus with sketch maps. Soft covers. Very good. ***Scarce: only 300 copies were printed. #6059 $85.00

63. Historical Records of Australia [III/7]. Resumed Series III. Despatches and Papers Relating to the History of Tasmania. Vol. VII. Tasmania, January – December 1828. General Editor: Peter Chapman. AGPS in assoc. with Commonwealth Parliamentary Library: Canberra, 1997. lxxxvi (Preface, Introduction, Precis of Despatches and Letters), 930pp. (687pp. documents, 691–860 commentary, 863–76 appendices, plus index). Blue cloth, spine gilt. Very good. ***The first of the resumed series relating to the colonial history of Van Diemen's Land. This volume is now out of print due to the AGPS, at the time of its demise, sending the remaining stocks to be pulped instead of despatching them to us (!); consequently only about 220 copies exist. Volumes VIII ($135) and IX ($185) are now available, and more volumes are in preparation. #4691 $350.00
64. HULL, Hugh Munro. Practical Hints to Emigrants intending to proceed to Tasmania: and a full description of the several counties and their products; with a Paper on Local Industries by Edwin Craddock Nowell. Half leather and maroon cloth, title and publisher's name gilt-stamped on upper board, patterned endpapers; some flecking and damp marks to the cloth, with a damp patch at the foot corner of the lower board showing through on the inside. The hinges professionally strengthened with Japanese tissue. Signs of small patches of adhesion on the foot edges of the last several leaves (now all separated with minimal damage) and in the middle of pp70&71 (slight loss of text), pp51–4 repaired with tape, otherwise a decent enough clean copy of a scarce item. ****Presented to the public as a record of contemporary history affecting the State at the close of the year 1924.* #27678 $225.00
77. McAULEY, James. Surprises of the Sun. Poems by James McAuley. Angus & Robertson: Sydney, 1969. 1st ed. 62pp. Original cloth-textured papered boards with dustwrapper. Very good. Loosely inserted is an invitation card (manuscript, apparently in the poet's hand, except for text in square brackets): 'James and Norma McAuley [At Home] for wine and cheese [at] 11 Marsh St, New Town [on] Sunday 29 June, 4.30 – 7pm, on the occasion of the publication of "Surprises of the Sun" R.S.V.P. – annotated in another hand 'accept / 24/6'. #4842 $35.00
78. McAuley, James: Poems in Honour of James McAuley. New Albion Press: Hobart, 1978. #316 of 500 numbered copies. 50pp. Hand-set and hand-printed. Original cloth with dustwrapper (slight sunning of spine). Very good to fine. Loosely inserted, but formerly taped to the front paste-down (leaving a few small marks), is a letter from the University of Tasmania English Dept staff member who supervised the publication to Sir George Cartland, the Vice-Chancellor, accompanying his copy, thanking him for his co-operation in the project, and advising that a profit of $3900 should be achieved, the sum to be used to establish three annual prizes in McAuley's memory. Accompanying the book is the University of Tasmania News no. 28, 29 October 1976, which carries a personal tribute to McAuley by Alexander Porteous on its first two pages, and in which is loosely inserted, as a Supplement (single sheet, printed both sides), the Oration delivered by Cartland at McAuley's funeral earlier that month. ****Contributions to the book include the work of some of the leading Australian poets of the 1970s.* #11463 $50.00
79. McPHEE, John. The Art of John Glover. Macmillan: Melb., 1980. 1st ed. Oblong 4to. x, 102pp, illustrated in colour and b&w. Original cloth-textured papered boards with dustwrapper (spine and adjacent strip, both front and rear, faded). Very good. #23456 $55.00

(Tasmaniana Facsimile Editions, no. 5) First published Hobart, 1834 (Ferguson 1865). # 67 of 200 numbered copies. Quarter-leather, spines gilt with raised bands, and marbled boards, with clear mylar dustwrapper. Edges slightly soiled, otherwise nice and clean. Very good. ****Includes reproductions of the 13 Bock lithographs and the coloured Mulgrave Battery signals chart.* #10140 $150.00
81. MELVILLE, Henry. The History of Van Diemen's Land from the year 1824 to 1835 inclusive during the Administration of Lieutenant-Governor George Arthur. D.S. Ford, Printers [for the editor]: Sydney, 1959. Edited, with an Introduction, Notes and commentary by George Mackaness. #13 of 150 copies (135 for sale),

- signed by Mackaness. Small 4to. 3 parts. 59, 59 & 56pp, illus. Original stiff wrappers, slight fading to spines and creasing of the yapp-style edges. Owner's (fading) details at top corner of the title-pages. Very good. #18114 $75.00
82. MEREDITH, Louisa A. Bush Friends in Tasmania. Native Flowers, Fruits and Insects, drawn from Nature, with prose descriptions and illustrations in verse. Last Series. Macmillan: London, 1891. #575 of 700 copies, signed by the author/artist. Folio. vi, [ii], 76pp, [8]pp (contents, last blank), 12 numbered full-page colour plates (Plate I is the illustrated title), 3 other coloured plates (dedication page and two titles for poems), all with tissue guards; 8 poem-title pages printed in monochrome on the text paper, all text pages with decorative border. Original gilt- and blind-decorated cloth over bevelled boards, extremities a little rubbed but bright and clean, all edges gilt. The book has been expertly (and invisibly) repaired (sewn): the usual problem of perished gutta-percha binding meant that several pages/plates were loose in the binding, but none were adversely affected - all edges in very good condition, although there is a very little loss of the gilding. Contemporary owner's name (Bethune) on front free endpaper. A nice clean copy. Very good. #27612 $1750.00
83. MEREDITH, Louisa Anne. Tasmanian Friends and Foes, feathered, furred and finned. A Family Chronicle of Country Life, Natural History, and Veritable Adventure. J. Walch & Sons: Hobart Town, 1880. With coloured plates, from drawings by the Author and other illustrations. 1st edition. Ferguson 12514. 260pp, 8 coloured plates, text illustrations, decorative head and tail pieces. Original green cloth, decorated in gold and black, over boards with bevelled edges, the extremities slightly rubbed. All edges gilt. Some light foxing on the first and last couple of leaves, owner's bookplate on front paste-down (and it seems another was removed when this was placed there - no damage but a little staining of the paper). The plates and pages clean. Very good. #4872 $675.00
84. MILLER, E. Morris. Pressmen and Governors. Australian Editors and Writers in early Tasmania. A contribution to the history of the Australian press and literature with notes biographical and bibliographical. Angus & Robertson: Sydney, 1952. 1st edition. #243 of 250 copies, signed by the author. 308pp. Original cloth with dustwrapper (spine slightly browned). Walch & Sons (for the 12th Battalion Association): Hobart, 1925. 1st ed. vi, 508pp, illustrated, 12 folding maps on tissue. Original quarter cloth binding, blue spine and white boards, the spine quite faded and a little rubbed. Edges a little spotted, some uneven folding of the maps (as usual), hinges strengthened (professionally) with Japanese tissue. Owners' names on front free endpaper. A very good copy of a book usually found in a poor state. #27594 $750.00
88. NICHOLAS, Mary J. Bushrangers: reminiscence of early Tasmania. Harry H. Tombs: Wellington, NZ, 1919. 16pp, text printed in black with a brown decorative border to each page and orange decorative headpiece at text opening, frontis portrait of author, 3 b&w illustrations. Tied with ribbon in printed yapp-style wrappers. Author's signature underneath her picture., and three short clean tears in the head edge of this page. Otherwise very good. ****Written late in life, the author's account of a raid on her family home, 'Cluny'* (near Bothwell), by Wingy, Flowers and Sydney Jim - 'the last gang of bushrangers in Tasmania' - on 20 May 1869. A letter from Lucy Reid, formerly of 'Ratho', with additional details, is included at the end of the text. #27690 $365.00

Not long since published in Low Dutch by Dirk Rembrantle, and now in English from Dr Hook's Collections.' One of the earliest publications in English of Tasman's account of his voyage of 1642 – the earlier publications referred to were those of Dirck Rembrantz van Nierop (Amsterdam, 1674) and Robert Hooke ('Relation of a Voyage made towards the South Terra Incognita', from Philosophical Collections 6; London, 1682). #27689 $725.00

113. Tasmania: Handbook of Tasmania. Government Printer: Hobart, 1914. Issued by the Government of Tasmania. 2nd edition. With two hundred and sixty-five illustrations and three maps [actually only one]. xx, 500pp, one folding map, 2 full-page plans (of Hobart and Launceston), 3 maps of fishing sites, coloured plate. Papered boards cut flush, gilt titles and coloured vignette inlaid on the upper. The spine creased and chipping but binding solid. Text complete, but the section title and first illustration of the Fishing section (pp 305–8) bound in upside down. Owner's name on title page, at the blank foot of a couple of pages inside and his initials on the top edges (all but the title-page in heavy felt pen). A good copy. ***The first edition was 1908: this is revised and expanded. A one-volume issue of what was also issued in five parts; that is, the five separate sections: [1] Information for immigrants and statistics (pp1–84). [2] Australia's playground and health resort (pp86–260). [3] Crown Land Laws & Timber Industry (pp261–304). [4] An Angler's Guide: sport with rod and line (pp305–420, coloured plate of flies, 3 sketch maps). [5] Orchard, Dairy, Poultry & General Farming (pp421–99). Because this book was compiled from separate parts, they are often found without the full complement of maps, and occasionally with misbindings of some sections. The one map here present is 'Tasmania': the general map, showing railways, roads etc (end section 2, p260). #11420 $165.00
